LETTER FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Families,
Heartfelt Holiday wishes for whichever traditions your family celebrates. Enjoy the time with your family and take some time to look at the gifts you have, both tangible and intangible. (and don't forget to read!)
Warm regards,
Patrick Eagle

MONDAY 1/4/21 IS A NON-STUDENT DAY

Just a reminder that Monday, 1/4/21, is a non-student day. Staff will be working but students will have an additional day of vacation. School resumes 1/5/21.

ART FOR MR. COSTA

As some of you may already know, Wendy Costa's (lunch lady and office assistant extraordinaire) husband, Mr. Costa (the friendly man with the white Mickey Mouse hands who directed traffic in the morning) has been ill. He loves art, and is an artist himself. He would be thrilled to receive any drawing, coloring, or painting that your child might want to create. They can send in their artwork with their completed schoolwork and we'll be sure he gets it.

MR. EAGLE'S READ ALOUDS

Last spring when the school was closed due to Covid, I made a number of videos in which I read books aloud, including an entire chapter book. Click here to access the document that has all the links.

Winners of last week's Challenge

Aliyah- Riebli, Mrs. Black's 1st grade

Addison Roberts - Riebli, Ms. Farrell's 5th grade

In this week's video I introduced a Chinese Jump Rope Unit that will extend into January. Please encourage your students to practice it each day! If a student happened to not get a rope, please let me know. There are extras!

Thank You,
